

THE 10 IN 8 FINE DINING GROUP

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

24th August 2010

The 10 in 8 Fine Dining Group joins the fight against child hunger

Eat out at La Bécasse, Paris House or L'ortolan and help save lives

During September and October, The 10 in 8 Fine Dining Group's restaurants will participate in the UK's leading foodie campaign Fight Hunger Eat Out and invites their customers to fight hunger simply by eating out.

Supported by a multitude of culinary luminaries including Raymond Blanc, Antonio Carluccio, Giorgio Locatelli and Rick Stein, Fight Hunger Eat Out unites food lovers who are turning their passion for food into action to help malnourished children and their families worldwide.

Children like one year old Lomuria from Uganda, whose family was left destitute after a raid on the family's cattle meant no food or income for several months. With only one small meal per day, and weakened by malaria, Lomuria weighed a dangerous one stone. However, after receiving treatment at an Action Against Hunger feeding centre, she survived.

Joining hundreds of restaurants across the nation, La Bécasse in Ludlow, Paris House in Woburn and L'ortolan in Shinfield will be supporting the campaign by giving customers the opportunity to add a voluntary donation to their restaurant bill to raise money towards Action Against Hunger's programmes worldwide.

To date, Fight Hunger Eat Out has helped raise more than £1.2 million, raising £450,000 last year alone, with all funds going directly to support the crucial work that Action Against Hunger do.

Help make this year's Fight Hunger Eat Out campaign the biggest ever. Simply pop along to La Bécasse, Paris House or L'ortolan to enjoy an award winning meal and ask to add a voluntary donation to your final bill. This will help people in some of the world's poorest countries to feed their families.
